

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how Oswal Engineering Corporation collects, uses, and protects any personal information that you provide when using our website. Oswal Engineering Corporation is committed to safeguarding your privacy. If we ask you to provide information by which you can be identified when using this website, please be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy policy.

Oswal Engineering Corporation may update this policy from time to time by changing this page. You should check this page occasionally to ensure that you are satisfied with any changes. This policy is effective from 01/01/2022.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following information:

- Name and job title, Company name, address and other details
- Contact information including email address, phone numbers and/or others
- Demographic information such as postcode, preferences, and interests
- Other information relevant to customer surveys and/or offers

How We Use the Information

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service. Specifically, we use the information for:

- Internal record keeping
- Improving our products and services
- Sending promotional emails about new products, special offers, or other information we think you may find interesting
- Contacting you for market research purposes via email, phone, fax, or mail
- Customizing the website according to your interests

Security

We are committed to ensuring the security of your information. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have implemented suitable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard the information we collect online.

Cookies

A cookie is a small file placed on your computer's hard drive. With your consent, the file is added, and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies enable web applications to respond to you as an individual, tailoring their operations to your needs and preferences by gathering and remembering information.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website to better meet customer needs. This information is used solely for statistical analysis and is then removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide a better website experience by monitoring which pages are useful and which are not. A cookie does not give us access to your computer or any personal information other than what you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to Other Websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you use these links to leave our site, we do not have control over those websites. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information you provide while visiting such sites. Such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. We encourage you to review the privacy policy of any website you visit.

Controlling Your Personal Information

You can choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- When asked to fill in a form on the website, look for the box indicating that you do not want the information to be used for direct marketing purposes.
- If you have previously agreed to our using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you can change your mind at any time by writing to or emailing us at info@oswalengineering.com.

We will not sell, distribute, or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting, provided you have indicated that you wish this to happen.

You may request details of the personal information we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee may be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held about you, please write to Oswal Engineering Corporation, 9, Ark Industrial Estate, Makwana Rd, Marol, Andheri, Mumbai 400 059.

If you believe that any information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete, please contact us as soon as possible at the above address. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
